

Making the move to a centralized workflow.

There are many benefits to centralizing your staffing process – and just as many methods of doing so. We can tailor a solution for you that brings the strengths of our brands, our people, and our resources together to make the perfect fit for you.

Moving to a centralized staffing model makes communication fast and easy through a single point of contact – with access to all our staffing brands and a medical staff services team of more than 250 tenured professionals. Industry-leading technology and enhanced invoicing and reporting provide transparency into your entire staffing process.

- A single relationship with access to our entire family of brands
- Industry-leading technology to provide insight and transparency into your staffing process
- Expert consulting & Lean services
- Enhanced invoicing and reporting
- Reduced administrative burden
- Greater visibility across your whole enterprise

Specialists in exactly one healthcare staffing solution: yours.

We're prepared to tackle problems of any scale with our proven strategic know-how and unmatched resources. But every solution always begins by understanding you and your specific challenges. Start the conversation today by calling 877.222.7580.